Dear Friends and Colleagues,

Welcome!

We are deeply honored and absolutely delighted to serve as the Co-Chairs for the 15th Annual Meeting of the Society of Catholic Social Scientists.

This will be a landmark conference, as the Society membership is strengthened by many allies in very active attendance as presenters and panelists. The University Faculty for Life-Long Island Chapter, the Nassau Community College Center for Catholic Studies, the C.S. Lewis Society, the Joint Parish Life Committee, and the New York affiliate of the American Family Association are among the conference co-sponsors. Friends from the Fellowship of Catholic Scholars, the Cardinal Newman Society, The Catholic League for Religious and Civil Rights, and many other affinity groups and allies with the Catholic religious, intellectual, moral worldview are making presentations at the conference.

This is the first time that the annual meeting is convened in New York City. We thank Dean Mary C. Daly and her staff (especially Ms. Karyn DiDominici, Special Events Manager, and Ms. Samra Sahar, Secretary) at the St. John's University School of Law, our gracious host site for the conference. We also thank the Catholic League for Religious and Civil Rights, the Nassau Community College Center for Catholic Studies, the St. John Fisher Fund, and the Catholic Central Union of America/Social Justice Review for generous financial support.

David L. Gregory and Joseph A. Varacalli

Ms. Karyn DiDominici

Special Events Manager

School of Law
St. John's University,
8000 Utopia Parkway
Jamaica, Queens, New York 11439
718.990.1950 telephone didomink@stjohns.edu

Ms. DiDominici can also answer logistical questions regarding hotels in the area, and can provide maps and directions to St. John's (approximately 6 miles from LaGuardia airport and 10 miles from JFK airport). Free parking is available on the campus, through the main gate of the University (8000 Utopia Parkway, immediately north of the Grand Central Parkway). The law school building is the first building on the immediate right, immediately past the main gate.

Hotels: The Ramada Conference Center Bayside, 220-33 Northern Blvd, Bayside Queens, New York 11361, phone 718.631.4900, about six miles northeast of the St. John's University campus (approximately $18 cab fare) has a block of rooms available at the Conference discount rate of $135 per night (not including state and local taxes). The rooms are available on a first come/first serve basis; be sure to tell hotel reservations that you are attending the conference at St. John's. Ms. DiDominici can provide additional information about other hotels in the area.

Meals and Receptions: All meals and receptions will be in the cafeteria of the School of Law.

Masses: Masses will be at the St. Thomas More Church, on the campus Mall and immediately across from the front of the School of Law.

Please note: Papers, distribution, and possible publication: All presenters are urged to bring with them about 25 copies of their presentations either in paper or outline form for distribution to those attending their respective panels. We will not be able to Xerox papers gratis in advance of, or on-site at, the conference. One purpose of the conference is the dissemination of important information. Those who want their papers considered for publication in the Catholic Social Science Review, the official journal of the Society of Catholic Social Scientists, should prepare the paper according to the guidelines of the CSSR—to be found in the front material of the latest issue (Volume Eleven)—and send the paper to Dr. Mark Lowery, Editor in Chief, Catholic Social Science Review, Department of Theology, University of Dallas, 1845 E. Northgate Drive, Irving, Texas, 75062, phone 972-721-5357, email lowery@udallas.edu

The Journal of Catholic Legal Studies (formerly, The Catholic Lawyer) at the St. John's University School of Law will also consider for publication high-quality papers in law review style format. Authors wishing to have papers considered for publication in the Journal of Catholic Legal Studies must first submit their paper by email to Professor David Gregory at gregoryd@stjohns.edu no later than Monday, November 5, 2007.

Please note: All conference attendees are encouraged to bring with them material that they want to distribute to other conference attendees. Such material may include books, previously published papers, resumes and publication sheets, information about organizations—Catholic or otherwise—that are congruent with Catholic social teaching or the natural law. Tables will be made available for such materials.
